JUSTICE DENIED
P.O. Box 68911
Seattle, Washington 98168

Dear Sir/Mam:

An inmate friend gave me your name, address and strongly suggested that I write you to try to obtain justice! Please find enclosed 2-page copy of index for www.free-kenm Middleton.com, which details how an innocent man is still in prison doing "life without-parole." After 14-years my trial judge set my conviction and sentences aside and ordered me a new trial.

Please take the time and read this website by clicking on Document Index: I think you will be convinced that I am an innocent man by the time you read number 8, 9, 10, 25, 26, 28 and 36. See, R.L. v. State, 245 S.W.3d 236 (Mo. banc 2008).

Furthermore, I think you would be "shocked" if you read the whole website. Is there one guilty man in all the U.S. prisons doing "life without-parole," who would turn down an Alford plea to time served and an immediate release from prison?? (See, Document Index Number 30, page 2 ¶3 file stamped June 27th, 2005 and No. 32, page 2, and read Prosecutor Mike Sanders' statement to the Kansas City Star on July 2nd, 2005). If you have any questions, please call Cliff Middleton (913) 486-4482 or e-mail him at cmiddleton6@kc.rr.com, or write to me.

Thank you in advance for your considerations in this matter and I look forward to your opinion.

Yours very truly,

Kenneth G. Middleton
